New lifeline by Blood donation

Employees along with villagers participated with full devotion in 13th Blood Donation camp by APNRL

Total 86-unit blood collected at the 13th blood donation camp organized in remembrance of founder Late Mahadeo Prasad Agarwal on Founder Day 24th October.

The CSR department of Adhunik Power & Natural Resources Limited, Padampur in association with NGO Voluntary Blood Donors Association and Jamshedpur Blood Bank took initiative for the camp held at its OHC (Jeevandayini). The presence of Mr. Nirmal Kumar Agarwal-Director, served as an inspiration to the donors, while Mr. Arun Kumar Mishra-CEO, along with various Heads of Departments, uplifted their spirits and extended heartfelt gratitude for their generous contributions towards society and those in need. It was most appreciated when villagers of vicinity Padampur, Badahariharpur, Chhotahariharpur, Srirampur and Pindrabera showed immense vigor to contribute for this noble cause. Besides them employees also throng to help mankind.

Sanjeet Sinha CSR representative and his team's vital contribution helped camp concluded with success. Mr. Sinha proposed vote of thanks.

Beautification spree

A Goutam Buddha sculpture has been installed at assembly area near Admin block (Ujala and Prakash). This sculpture has enhanced the beautification of the assembly area.

A Glow signboard structural gate installed at Pindrabera entry gate. This gate will make the entrance more welcoming, visible and attractive especially at night.

Let us carry forward the legacy of a true visionary

APNRL celebrated Founder Day

The Employees and officials of Adhunik Power & Natural Resources Limited fondly remembered and paid floral tribute to our beloved founder of the company, Late Mahadeo Prasad Agarwal (Bahuwala), on his 99th birth anniversary on October 24.

Director Shri Nirmal Kumar Agarwal along with CEO Mr. Arun Kumar Mishra with other employees, villagers and Head of the Departments paid floral homage and took pledge to emulate his ideology.

Addressing to the employees on the occasion, Mr. Nirmal Kumar Agarwal said

Late Mahadeo Prasad Agarwal ji was not merely a leader; he was a visionary, a pioneer, and a beacon of hope. His unwavering determination, foresight, and dedication laid the foundation of Adhunik Power transforming dreams into a reality that stands tall today. He believed in excellence, integrity, and innovation—values that form the cornerstone of everything we do.

CEO Mr. Arun Kumar Mishra said, “Late Mahadeo Prasad ji, we owe not just our gratitude but our commitment to keep his dreams alive. Let us pledge today to emulate his principles and work tirelessly to build upon the foundation he so passionately laid.” Sweet distribution was also held for celebrating Founders day.

Sports promotion: Inter-Village Chess organized by APNRL

Singrai Mardi, Manoj Kumar Mandal and Lakshmi Sardar won Inter-village chess championship. The chess tournament was organised by CSR department at the Community Centre in Badahariharpur vilalge for paying tribute to the founder of the company Late Mahadeo Prasad Agarwal. A total of 20 boys and 10 girls from the surrounding villages, include which Badahariharpur, Shrirampur, Bikanipur, and Padampur participated in the tournament.

The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from local social work volunteers, including Mr. Sanjay Baskey, Mr. Anil Sardar and Mrs. Ambika Mahato, who played a crucial role in making this CSR initiative a success. Mr. Sanjeet Sinha from the CSR department welcomed the participants while the event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Mr. Sanjay Baskey of Padampur.
