Partners of growth

Farming training to generate source of income

A training session on kitchen gardens and the cultivation of Moringa (drumstick) was conducted at the Community Center, Pindrabera. This initiative, organized by the CSR department, Adhunik Power & Natural Resources Limited in association with Semina Agro Pvt Ltd., Ranchi, aimed to promote sustainable livelihoods for poor and vulnerable communities of peripheral villagers.

The session began with a welcome speech from Mr. Sanjeet Kumar Sinha of CSR APNRL, who encouraged participants to develop their own kitchen gardens to ensure rich nutrition for their families throughout the year. He highlighted that Moringa cultivation is a low-effort, high-reward option that could also serve as a commercial opportunity.

The training was attended by almost 30 villagers, who actively engaged in the session under the guidance of expert trainers. Mr. Mohit Kumar, Managing Director of Semina Agro, provided an in-depth explanation of kitchen garden concepts and the Moringa cultivation process.

He emphasized the various benefits of Moringa, including its nutritional value, medicinal properties, and environmental advantages. Mr. Kumar also motivated participants by discussing the potential for Moringa to serve as a sustainable livelihood source.

He assured them that if they cultivated Moringa leaves on a large scale, Semina Agro would be interested in purchasing their produce which will be accurate source of income for them. Overall, the training session was ended in a success, equipping participants with valuable knowledge and practical skills to enhance their livelihoods through sustainable agricultural practices.

Promotion of Sports

Adhunik Power & Natural Resources Limited is making a positive impact in the community by supporting & promoting sports and celebrating Independence Day with a soccer tournament at Padampur village ground.

The presence of key CEO-Mr. Arun Kumar Mishra, Mr. Rajesh Kumar Sharma, Mr. Rajesh Kumar Singh, Mr. S K Parvez, Mr. Sanjeet Sinha and other important individuals shows strong support for local initiatives and the importance of community engagement. It was great to see such involvement and appreciation for both the organizers and the players.

Boosting women empowerment

In a significant move towards boosting women empowerment, APNRL recently held a meeting presided by Liaison-Head, Mr. Rajesh Kumar Singh.

The meeting brought together influential women from surrounding villages to gather their insights and ideas for community development.

Accompanied by members including Mr. Sanjeet Sinha, Mr. S. M. Khushru and Mr. Vikas Kumar, Mr. Rajesh Kumar Singh attentively listened to the women's perspectives and suggestions. The women's voices were heard with respect and consideration.

Roof repairing to safeguard education aspirants

In response to a request from the principal of Utkmik Middle School in Badahariharpur, the company undertook necessary repairs to address issues of roof seepage and leakage that were jeopardizing the safety of students. Recognizing the urgency of the situation, the company acted promptly to ensure a secure and conducive learning environment. The roof repair work was carried out efficiently, and both the school principal and students have expressed their appreciation for the company's swift and effective intervention. The repairs have significantly improved the safety and comfort of the school facilities, allowing students to focus on their education without concerns about their environment.

'Project cyber village' continue to literate

APNRL's Cyber Village project is actively working to spread cyber literacy and uplift the livelihoods of villagers in Barahariharpur and surrounding areas. The initiative aims to enhance the computer literacy of village youths and students, equipping them with essential digital skills for better career prospects and increasing their awareness of the information revolution. The project's key objectives lead to providing training, the project seeks to make village youths and students proficient in using computers. This skill development is crucial for accessing information, educational resources, and job opportunities in the digital age. Secondly, the project also focuses on educating villagers about the significance of the cyber world and information technology. Understanding these concepts is vital for adapting to modern advancements and leveraging digital tools for personal and community growth.
